"You name it, they've got it" at this Village "cheese nirvana" that "pleases the pickiest" with its "phenomenal" stock of exclusive imports offered at the "peak of perfection" and overseen by staffers who show "unbridled enthusiasm" as they answer "cheesy questions", "encourage sampling" and give "right-on" suggestions; following a post-Survey move to roomy across-the-street digs, it now offers a much wider array of prepared foods and grocery items and boasts six temperature- and humidity-controlled caves for in-house aging as well as a space for fromage-appreciation classes; N.B. there's also a commuter-"convenient" stall in Grand Central Market that carries a smaller selection.
