

MAY 2020

THE CLASSICS

OF THE MONTH CLUB

WHAT'S INSIDE

Milton Creamery Prairie Breeze

Made in Milton, Iowa, this award-winning cheddar produced by the Musser family uses pastured, hand-milked cow's milk from local Amish farms, resulting in a surprisingly sweet and nutty block with subtle grassy notes.

Pair with: Cider, Chardonnay

Nutty / Grassy / Sweet

Bucheron

These chèvre logs have a two-texture magic in every slice: a thick, velvety creamline beneath a delicately wrinkled, downy rind. The interior of this French beauty is pure lemony bliss, with a fluffy mouthfeel that lingers on the palate.

Pair with: Sparkling Wine, IPAs

Citrusy / Creamy / Fluffy

Marieke Aged Gouda

Made in Wisconsin but crafted in the classic Dutch style, this traditional aged Gouda hits the mark on everything you'd expect from a selection from the Netherlands: sweet and balanced, with notes of butterscotch and a delicate crunch.

Pair with: Pinot Noir, Chenin Blanc

Caramel / Butterscotch / Sweet Onion

Idiazábal

Similar to its Spanish cousin, Manchego, this Basque cheese is lightly pressed and gently smoked, giving it a supple, toothsome and subtle sharpness accented by a rich, buttery mouthfeel and intriguing gamy essence.

Pair with: Sour Beers, Tempranillo

Buttery / Gamy / Smoky

Murray's MAD LIB

1. Past tense verb _____
2. Adjective _____
3. Number > 1 _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Animal _____
6. Country _____
7. Number _____
8. Color _____
9. Food _____
10. Snack _____
11. Food _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Noun _____

Today I _____ to my local Murray's for some cheese
past tense verb
and artisanal snacks. The _____ cheesemonger let me
adjective
taste _____ cheeses. I enjoyed them all, but there was number > 1
one in particular I fell in love with. It's a _____, adjective
_____ milk cheese from _____. After being aged animal country
for _____ days, the rind develops a _____ color.
number color
It tastes like _____ and when paired with _____, food snack/accompaniment it tastes like _____. It may be hard to believe, but you
food
just have to try it for yourself! Its name is _____ adjective
_____. I highly recommend!
noun