Murray’s High Plains Cheddar
This crumbly yet creamy classic is a blend of Midwestern cheesemaking and Alpine traditions. Crunchy and mouthwatering, it boasts a surprising balance of sweet and nutty notes, with a hint of fresh, grassy flavor.
Pair with: Lagers, Riesling

Stepladder Creamery Ragged Point
Mouthwateringly creamy with a firm, velvety paste, this award-winning California cow’s milk button is a mild, smooth crowd-pleaser that develops a slightly complex, peppery profile as it ages.
Pair with: Farmhouse Ales, Sparkling Wine

Marieke Aged Gouda
Inspired by Dutch tradition and crafted in Wisconsin, this sweet, nutty, and utterly snackable favorite is aged for nine months to give it that smooth, firm paste and caramel flavor.
Pair With: IPAs, Pinot Noir
